Solemn Mass of Our Lady of Victories

WESTMINSTER CATHEDRAL LONDON

Immaculate Mary

(TIFHIR JITKANTA FUQ L-AVE TA' LOURDES)

Immaculate Mary! Our hearts are on fire; that title so wondrous fills all our desire.

Ave, Ave, Ave Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave Maria.

We pray for God's glory, may His kingdom come! We pray for His vicar, our Father and Rome..

Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!

We pray for our mother the Church upon earth, and bless, sweetest Lady, the land of our birth.

Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!

For poor, sick, afflicted, thy mercy we crave; and comfort the dying, thou light of the grave.

Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!

In grief and temptation, in joy or in pain, we'll ask thee, our mother, nor seek thee in vain.

Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!

In death's solemn moment, our mother, be nigh; as children of Mary, o teach us to die.

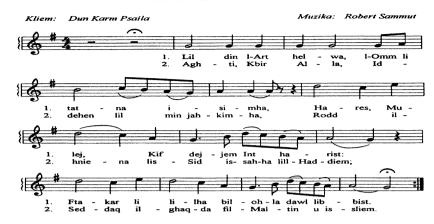

Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!

And crown thy sweet mercy with this special grace, to b'hold soon in heaven God's ravishing face.

Ave, Ave, Ave Maria!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This year we are honoured with the Distinguished Patronage of the President of the Republic of Malta, Her Excellency Marie-Louise Coleiro Preca who is accompanied by her Consort Mr Preca. Their presence on this day is most surely received with supreme appreciation and respect by people in the Maltese Community who still preserve in great esteem their identity and heritage.

Malta Day-UK is hosted by His Excellency Norman Hamilton, High Commissioner of Malta to Great Britain and Northern Ireland. He and his wife offer their welcome and grateful thanks to all the people who are attending the events of this day.

We warmly welcome among us His Eminence Cardinal Prospero Grech O.S.A. Titular Archbishop of San Leone and Cardinal-Deacon of Santa Maria Goretti in Rome. The Maltese Cardinal accepted an invitation to lead the concelebration of Solemn Mass together with other Maltese clergy in this year's festivity of Our Lady of Victories (IL-BAMBINA), venerated as the protector of Malta and Gozo for her intercession during times of conflict against the Ottoman Empire in 1565 and more recently in the difficult years of the Great World Wars of the twentieth century.

The Animae Gospel Choir of Malta will sing during the Mass under the direction of Pamela Bezzina. The keyboard musician Christian Borg provides accompaniment to the 21 singers of the choir. Since its formation the Animae Gospel Choir gained an extensive reputation in Malta through many performances of religious music for which the choir is renowned.

We thank the Westminster Cathedral Administrator, Canon Christopher Tuckwell and the Cathedral Precentor Father Alexander Master who once again gave the Maltese in Great Britain an opportunity to celebrate a solemn Mass in the Cathedral, from where we proceed afterwards through the streets of Victoria with the Bambina Statue. Everyone in the congregation is urged to join the procession and bring to a close the church celebration at the Sacred Heart Chapel of Ease in Horseferry Road.

The Malta Day-UK Committee extend thanks and appreciation to the Malta High Commissioner and the Staff of the Maltese Diplomatic Mission in London for their direct assistance and co-ordination in organising the events of this day.

Special thanks are particularly rendered to all the Maltese and Gozitan people and their friends who attend today's celebrations in an atmosphere of unity and friendship with a feeling of national pride under the patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary whom we honour with the title of IL-BAMBINA. This is the fourteenth year of celebrating Malta Day-UK in succession, a tangible evidence of solidarity among the people who, through their attendance and participation, continue to demonstrate their desire to come together and retain their inherited Faith and Heritage.

Holy Child Mary, you bring the Maltese people together to celebrate our Faith in your Son Jesus, and to uphold the Heritage of our homeland through your past intervention when you protected our forefathers in their time of need. Today we honour you with our gratitude and submit to you our appreciation for the protection you have shown to the people of Malta and Gozo while defending them in times of conflict and danger. We now pray to you, our beloved Mother, to continue to grant your loving care over us and our families as we conduct our daily lives in the lasting peace that you have brought to our dear Maltese country. Amen.

The Principal Concelebrant invites the congregation to the PENITENTIAL RITE:

Brothers and sisters, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

All together:

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

A//: Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The First Reading from the Old Testament read in Maltese by SISTER SYLVIA BORG Franciscan Sisters of the Heart of Jesus

A reading from the Prophet Micah (Chapter 5, verses 2-5a)

Thus says the Lord:

But you, Bethlehem Ephratah, although little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of you shall come forth he who will rule Israel; he whose origin was from of old, from everlasting. Therefore will he give them up, until she who is in the pangs of birth will deliver; then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel. And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide, for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth. And this man shall be the peace.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Cantor and Congregation)

Response: I exult for joy in the Lord

Lord, I trust in your merciful love.
 Let my heart rejoice in your saving help.

Response: I exult for joy in the Lord

2. Let me sing to the Lord for his goodness to me, singing psalms to the name of the Lord, the most high.

Response: I exult for joy in the Lord

The Second Reading from the New Testament read by CHEVALIER MAJOR JAMES N. CASHA, representing the British Association of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Romans (Chapter 8, verses 28-30)

We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the first-born among many brethren. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

The word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God.

(All stand and sing together the GOSPEL ACCLAMATION - ALLELUJA)
